Republicans Renominate F gressman and Select Natural Convention Deloces.

SILENT MEGARDING YATES.

In Tame Gathering the Administration of President Roosevelt Is Indorsed-County Jealousy.

Congressman William A. Rodenberg of East St. Louis was renominated by accla-mation at the Republican Congressional

The delegates to the National Convention were instructed to vote for Theadore Roosevelt for nomination for President. His administration was indersed.

The act of the President in acquiring the Panama Canal was commended, and CONGRESSMAN W. A. RODENBERG. Who was renominated at the Republican Congressional Convention of the Twen ty-secold District in East St. Louis yesterday.

Congressman Rodenberg received congratdations on his work for his constituents. Nothing was said about Governor Yates or the State administration.

From a political standpoint the convention was mild. It had been conceded for months that there would be no candidate congressional nomination, and the only interest centered in the selection of delegates to the National Convention. Those chosen are Charles W. Thomas of St. Clair County and H. F. Rider of Washing-

Chair County and H. F. Rider of Washington County. The alternates are M. W. Lewis et bond County and Edward Schening of Monree County.

The selection of these names caused dissatisfaction among several of the delegates from Madison County, who thought that their county should be represented, inasmuch as the congressional nomination went to St. Clair County. They did not think that it was fair to select a national delegate from the same county.

The meeting was opened in the morning by Postmaster Henry F. Bader of East The meeting was opened in the morning of Postmaster Henry F. Bader of East St. Louis, who read the call. Judge Jones Torry of Greenville was elected that man and H. J. Schmidt of Washington County was made secretary, with f. E. Harow of Madison County as assistant. WILL KEEP OPEN ON SUNDAYS. Close Until 9 A. M. The retail grocers and butchers of East

St. Louis decided last night to continue to keep their shops open until 9 a. m. on Their clerks had petitioned to close up during the whole day on Sundays, but it was decided last night that this would not only injure the trade, but it would also work a hardship on the poorer classes who could not afford to buy ice, and would be unable to keep their meat fresh over night. The early-closing proposition was also overruled.

Philips ever LASTS TEN MINUTES. Five Hundred Cattle Butchers Walk Out.

Chicago, April 12.-A strike of ten min Chicago, April 12.—A strike of ten min-utes' duration occurred at the plant of Swift & Co. here to-day. Five hundred cattle butchers walked out. Almost at the moment, however, word came from a meeting, then in session between the union officials and the employers, that a settle-ment had been reached and the mea re-turned to work.

One hundred employes who had been laid off and who, the union charged, had been nicked with reference to their mem-hership in the butchers' union, were rein-stated by the company.

GOOD NEWS AT EAST ST. LOUIS.

GOOD NEWS AT EAST ST. LOUIS. GOOD NEWS AT EAST ST. LOUIS.

East St. Louisans, and especially those who have interests in or near the National Stock Yards, or are employed by the interests there, were greatly pleased yesterdry afternoon when the telegrims received from Chicago brought the news that the threatened strike of the butchers in the Swift packing-houses throughout the country had been averted. Had the butchers at East St. Louis been called out it would have meant the enforced idleness of at least a thousand men.

Skirt, 12, 14 and 16 years.

Misses' Costume, Consisting of Misses' Waist with Round Yoke, No. 2298, and Misses' Five-Gored Skirt with Flounces, No. 2271—This stylish tollette is developed in biscuit and bine polka dot barege, with cream-colored lace and bine velvet ribbon for trimming. This combination of colors is a very fasheorable and girlish one.

The waist is mounted on a glove-fitted featherboned lining, that closes in the center back and is faced with lace to a round yoke depth back and front. The back is plain across the shoulders and drawn down close to the belt, 2 smooth adjustment being maintained under the arms.

drawn down close to the best, I shoom adjustment being maintained under the arms.

The full front is gathered and arranged on the foundation to outline the yoke, blousing well over a narrow blue velvet girdle. A fancy lace collar completes the neck. The yoke is finished with a deep ruffle of barege.

One-piece puff sleeves are gathered at the lower edge and attuched to narrow lace armbands, over which they droop weil. Deep accordion-pleated flounces are also arranged on the bands and flare smartly over the forearm.

The skirt is shaped with five gores, narrow front and backs, with wide sides fitted closely around the waist with small darts. The backs are finely shirred at the belt and fall in soft folds to the hem.

The pattern is given full length and the flounces applied. They are gathered at the top and arranged under narrow bands of velvet. One, two or three flounces may be used as desired, but the more flounces there are on a skirt the more fashionable it is at present.

be used as desired, but the more flounces there are on a skirt the more firshionable it is at present.

Three rows of narrow velvet ribbon trim the flounces on skirt and waist, adding a dark touch of color to the toilette. A fancy band of lace surmiounts the skirt flounces.

Costumes in this style are made of voile, veiling, collenne, wool canvas, crepe de Chine, soft sliks or satins, and trimmed with lace, velvet, chiffon, applique or motifs of Bulgarian embroidery. There are also many slik muslins, dimities, lawns, and organdles made in the same style.

To make the waist for a miss of 14 years will require two yards of material forty-four inches wide, with one-half yard of face for trimming. The pattern, No. 228, is cut in sizes for misses of 12, 14 and 16 years.

To make the skirt for a miss of 14 years will require six yards of material forty-four inches wide. The pattern, No. 221, is cut in sizes for misses of 12, 14 and 16 years.
